

Amphitheatre Quest

Name(s) :

1. The location:

Look closely at the shape of the amphitheatre at the beginning of the quest (when it is seen from a distance, during the animal fights) and look at the map of the town to draw the plan (seen from the 'sky') of a Roman amphitheatre:

2. Spectators seating

Where do spectators sit? .....

As the shows last quite a long time, what kind of food do the spectators eat?

.....

And what do they use to sit more comfortably?

.....

The emperor's representative: who is he? T..... C.....

Mark its place with a cross on your plan from question 1.

3. Fighting

What kinds of fights took place in the morning? .....

Gladiator fights:

How did you and Stultus "participate" in the fighting?.....

Today, there are still sporting activities where you bet money on the winners: which ones?.....

Draw the weapons of each of these gladiators:

To attack

To defend himself

A Mirmillon:

A Thrace:

A Samnite:

An Hoplomachus:

A Retiary:

At the start of each duel, the game displays 'III, II, I, PUGNATE'. What does this mean?

a. "3, 2, 1 - Have fun!"

b. "1, 2, 3 Fight"

c. "3, 2, 1 Fight"

Did you look at the gladiators' betting sheets?

Which qualities make a good gladiator? .....

.....

During the last fight between Verus and Priscus, the two famous gladiators
(they really did exist, but they were both Mirmillons and the fight took place a year after the destruction of Pompeii, in Rome's Colosseum inaugurated by the emperor Titus), how does the fight end and what does the emperor's envoy decide? .....
